

Community Resilience Committee Application

The Thomasville Community Resilience Committee (CRC) functions as a community-based group focused on addressing resiliency preparedness issues that disproportionately affect vulnerable or marginalized communities. The CRC's primary goal is to promote fair treatment and meaningful involvement of all people in resiliency preparedness decision-making. By promoting collaboration and accountability, the CRC will help ensure that everyone enjoys the benefits of a healthy, sustainable environment.

The CRC shall be responsible for the oversight of the implementation and evaluation of activities funded by the Community Change Grant. In addition to monitoring these activities, the CRC shall provide recommendations to the Thomasville Community Development Corporation Board of Directors and the City of Thomasville on these and related matters.

Meetings are held monthly. This committee of nine members 5 appointed by the City of Thomasville and 4 appointed by the Thomasville Community Development Corporation (TCDC). Two members of the TCDC board will have a 1 year term and two members will have 2 year terms.
